

POLICY: JGB DETENTION OF STUDENTS

REGULATION:

EXHIBIT:

A school administrator or teacher may detain a student for disciplinary reasons after school hours provided that, in the case of bused students, arrangements have been made for the student's transportation home.

Parents may be asked to arrange for the transportation of the detained student. However, if the parent cannot or will not provide it, an alternative disciplinary procedure must be substituted.

Students may be detained in classes for disciplinary reasons during the school day, provided that:

- a) a student is allowed adequate time for meals;
- b) instruction in other subjects is not missed because of this detention.

Students who are detained must never be left alone during their detention. Their supervision must be provided, or arranged for, by the teacher or administrator who detains them.
